

Sun Poet's Society

The Sun Poet's Society, an organization based in San Antonio that helps writers and artists of all genres from all walks of life, for peace. We publish Sun Poetic Times, the literary, visual arts magazine 2-4 times a year. Sun Poet's Society has been in existence since 1995 and Sun Poetic Times has been in existence since 1994. The Chair/founder of the organization is Rod C. Stryker, the Business Manager is Michele M. Gallagher. Currently we have monthly and weekly events:

Sun Poet's Society Open-Mic Poetry Readings

Hosted by Rod C. Stryker

Barnes and Noble (San Pedro Crossing), 321 N.W. Loop 410, Suite 104

Every Tuesday, 7pm to 9pm

admission is free. This venue enjoys complete freedom of speech.

Sun Poet's Society Writers Workshop

Hosted by Booger Jack

Barnes and Noble (San Pedro Crossing), 321 N.W. Loop 410, Suite 104

Every Thursday, 7pm to 10pm

admission is free. Bring 10-15 copies of 1 original work to be critiqued, as well as a paper and pen (pencil) for the writing exercise.

Poesia Del Sol

conducted by the Sun Poet's Society

Koffee Kup, 1025 Donaldson Ave.

Every 1st Thursday of the month, 7pm to 9pm

admission is free. This is a family-oriented poetry reading.

For more information, please contact Rod C. Stryker at (210)325-8122, sunpoets@hotmail.com